

New face in hospitality and leisure for Lano Carpets

In another major step towards its goal of becoming the single source solution for all commercial flooring requirements, Lano Carpets has strengthened its contracts division with the appointment of Kevin Beasant as UK Contract Sales Manager for its Hospitality and Leisure arm.

Working alongside specifiers, designers and end users within these demanding sectors, Kevin Beasant will be ensuring that Lano Carpets' broad range of hospitality and leisure products including bespoke and stock options, under the Lano Flooring Solutions brand, provide facilities within the sectors with high performance textile floor coverings.

Kevin has over 30 years experience in the contract flooring sector, with notable experience gathered during his time at Gaskell, Tandus and Modulus Flooring Systems.

With expertise in woven, tufted broadloom and modular carpeting, Kevin's experience will bring an added dimension to Lano Carpets' presence in the UK as Francis Debrabandere, UK Sales Manager explains:

"The appointment of Kevin to the role of Contract Sales Manager for Hospitality and Leisure UK represents a new phase for the Lano Flooring Solutions concept. Kevin's expertise and understanding will help to allay any queries and concerns and with his direct responsibility to Lano Carpets, Kevin will be poised to not only deliver great service, but to ensure maximum value too".

Kevin lives in North London with his wife and two children and comments on his new appointment:

"I am delighted to have been given this role. Times at Lano Flooring Solutions are exciting to say the least and with a growing number of prestigious clients already satisfied with carpets from their portfolio, I am relishing the challenge of driving the brand even further forward.

"It is my aim to ensure that Lano Flooring Solutions becomes the name in hospitality and leisure carpet specification."

Kevin can be contacted on 0208 4499 027 or via his mobile on 07894 499879 and looks forward to your call.
